Dear Mr. Grech,

Thank you for contacting the Europe Direct Contact Centre.

We would like to inform you that as the Information Centre for the European Union, we answer questions about the EU, its activities and its institutions and we can not give legal advice to citizens.

We recommend that you consult with a lawyer. With this tool on the European e-Justice portal, you can easily find a lawyer across the EU. This service is provided by the European Commission in cooperation with the participating national bar associations: https://e-justice.europa.eu/content_find_a_lawyer-334-en.do?init=true

The entitlement to legal aid allows those who do not have sufficient financial resources to meet the costs of legal proceedings or legal representation. Legal assistance systems exist in all EU Member States for both civil and criminal matters: https://e-justice.europa.eu/content_legal_aid-37129-en.do

We take seriously allegations of corruption such as the ones contained in your message. Feedback from citizens is valuable for the European Commission in planning follow-up work and future editions of the EU Anti-Corruption Report, which covers all Member States is available at: https://ec.europa.eu/home-affairs/what-we-do/policies/organized-crime-and-human-trafficking/corruption/anti-corruption-report_en

You can find information about the EU's actions against corruption on the following pages:

https://ec.europa.eu/commission/presscorner/detail/en/IP_20_2416

https://ec.europa.eu/home-affairs/what-we-do/policies/organized-crime-and-human-trafficking/corruption_en

Preventing corruption and building institutional capacity in public administration are also prioritised in the European Semester of economic governance and in the programming of the European Structural and Investment Funds.

However, in accordance with the legislation in force in the European Union, the Commission has no competence to intervene in individual cases such as the ones detailed in your message. Member States are responsible for the maintenance of law and order at national level. Please contact the competent national authority.

We hope you find this information useful. Please contact us again if you have other questions about the European Union, its activities or institutions.

Many things have been said for years about corruption in Malta and lately even ended the first EU country to be grey listed by FATF. Malta has always been that corrupt country and failed democracy, where owing to its small size, people in high positions end all becoming friends of friends, all covering up the abuses of each other, and God forbid you have to take it against one of them because you will find all guns pointed towards you.

To come to the point, I had a court case way back in 2001 where the Magistrate in front of whom my case was being heard, ended threatening me in a court room in a court sitting with the words "don't respond me because I will smash you against the wall". I have amongst others my sister as witness of the incident and even a letter from a commission which deplored his acts but never took action against him, and left me to vilely be discredited as the mental so that I will never be in a position to uncover the abuses that easily and be believed, everyone ends taking me with a pinch of salt despite the evidence and documents I have to prove my point. I have been reporting the many abuses I suffered over the years to various institutions including the Police but no one took action and it is very difficult to find someone who is ready to expose the abuses of his superior a magistrate (now ex magistrate after he retired), they reason it rather be friend with such a big head a magistrate than with me the accused and for so long having been maliciously labelled the mental. I have even set up a website (<https://tinyurl.com/m6bpuztk>) where I beg you to at least see just the introduction to get a small glimpse of the many abuses I had to suffer over the years.

I ask for your help. Action should be taken against Malta for being so corrupt and with such blatant violations of human rights.

Regarding "Please contact the competent national authority." I have wrote the Ombudsman, the Medical Council, Commissioner for Mental Health, Police Commissioner amongst others on various issues relating to my case but it was all in vain. I was discredited as a mental to save the magistrate the career, was diagnosed as mental without any scientific evidence say brain scan etc, but simply on blatant lies with lots of contradictions, simply the stroke of a pen all that was needed. As I said Malta being so small, you end up with persons in high positions all being friends of friends, scratching each others' back. It is impossible to find a local lawyer who is ready to take it against his superior, a magistrate, as I said, and the friends of friends who cover each others up. In the website that I made, I literally did the Police job of investigation, yet the Police just do not intervene without giving me any justification. Had I written something untrue in the website, they would have for sure massacred me with libels, but because what I have written concerns people in high positions, the Police keep a step back from intervening and prosecuting those involved. I have written the EU Parliament after it was all in vain reporting to the local authorities, corruption and nepotism are simply institutionalised in Malta, both major political parties are involved in some way in it and keep the status quo. How can the EU not help, is it itself that incompetent and wants to close its eyes and cover up the local authorities rather than intervene to stop these injustices and abuses on me? Is it afraid to put pressure on the local authorities to intervene in my case and investigate the matter? Does the EU care when it concerns blatant violations of human rights on one of its citizens? Please help, you are really my last hope.
